College Policies:

As a student at Langara, you are responsible for familiarizing yourself and complying with the following policies:

E1003 - Student Code of Conduct

F1004 - Academic Integrity

E2008 - Academic Standing - Academic Probation and Academic Suspension

Course Outline

Grades given in this class will not be negotiated. If you believe your grade was not calculated correctly, you can contact your instructor. If you still believe your mark was unfair, please review the Final Grade Appeal Policy. If you would like advice or information on this policy, you can contact the LSU Ombudsperson.

Academic integrity:

Academic integrity – refers to the values on which good academic work are founded and include honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility. Academic integrity includes a commitment not to engage in acts of falsification, misrepresentation or deception. Such acts of dishonesty violate the fundamental ethical principles of the College community and compromise the worth of work completed by others.

Academic integrity violation (plagiarism and cheating) – a variety of practices that include acts of deceit, misrepresentation, distortion of the truth in assignments, examinations, or other academic activities, or improper use of one's own or another person's effort to obtain an academic advantage. See Appendix A for examples (click link below) F1004 - Academic Integrity

Final Written Exams:

The final written exams of all courses are scheduled by the college administration, not the instructors. It is your responsibility as a student to be aware of the time, date and location of your final exams, as indicated in the examination schedule posted by the college (on the college website in your personal registration information).

<http://www.langara.bc.ca/registration-and-records/course-schedule/index.html>

Please check your schedule carefully and read the Langara exam policy. If you have a clash, requests for re-scheduling of final examinations must be made on the appropriate form available from the Front Counter at the Office of Registrar in the T-building.

You must do this by the cut-off date, which is posted on the Web and which is usually about one month before the final exam period.

A final exam can only be re-scheduled for the following reasons:

1. two or more exams at the same time, or
2. two or more exams each exceeding one hour in duration with an intervening break of less than one-half hour, or
3. more than three exams in one day, or
4. more than four hours of exams in one day.

Study Tips: To do well in this course, it is essential to:

- Review lessons covered and memorize vocabulary daily.
- Prepare written homework.
- Look over corrected homework, quizzes or tests.
- Practice with classmates.
